HER ABILITY REGOGNIZED.

Wittenmorer of Civil Was Passe Henored by Her Assessates. Hencipal by Her Americans.

The lady who was chosen as president of the Woman's Railer corps for the current year was one whose life for the last thirty years has been devoted to the country and its defenders, and among the many noble women who have endeaved themselves to the dead as well as to the little women has averaged. the many noble twomen who have endeaved themselves to the dead as well as to the living, zone has necured a more lasting graticude than the lady thus honored. Mrs. Annie Wittenneyer is a descendant of an officer who participated in the battle of Saratoga, and sacrificed his life to secure the victory of that deciaive battle. He died without the knowledge that the sacrifice had not been in vain, but the honors which he thus won are treasured by his descendants with laudable pride.

His ann, inspired by like patriotism, served with distinction in the war of 1813, and in the next generation three of the brothers of Mrs. Wittinmeyer were found in the defense of the Union. It is not strange, therefore, that Mrs. Wittanmeyer abould feel the petriotic impulses of her family, and abandom the confiorts of home to alleviate suffering in the

of her family, and abandon the comforts of home to allowiste suffering in the camp and in the hospital. With a brave but tender heart ahe went to the front to minister to the sick, the wounded and dying. While there the legislature elected her to the position of sanitary agent of that state, and authorized Governor Rickwood to grant her a commission. The various supplies which were sent from that state to the troops were distributed by her direction, and moneys necessary for the cars of the soldiers were intrusted to her.

She was placed at the head of the special diet Ritchen system of the Christian commission, which employed as managers nearly three hundred ladies, whereby food suitable for the sick and convalescent was supplied without waste, valescent was supplied without waste, and best adapted for their proper nour-ishment. In this field of labor she repelved substantial aid and co-operation from every officer of the government, including President Lincoln, Secretary Stanton and Surgeon General Barnes, who manifested a lively interest in her work. She was privileged to travel from point to point, as she deemed advisable, at the expense of the government. She secured free transportation upon order for all women employed by

Mrs. Wittenmeyer thus became awar of the movement of the troops and of any necessity for supplies at points widely distant, the one from the other, and was enabled to send nurses where-ever they were or might be needed. She might well be said to have been in command of the organized charities of the north, and to have been acclaimed queen of the army nurses.—New York Tele-

Ohte's Champion Woman Wather.

The champion lady pedestrian of Ohio lives in Middleport, two and one-quarter miles below The Telegraph office, in Pomercy, where she has been employed as a compositor for the past eight years. Every week day, winter and summer, for the eight years she has walked to and from her work, with but six weeker rest. Her walks a average twentweeper, miles Her walks average twenty-seven miles per week, through rain and sunshine, snow; mud and summer heat, and she often clambers around the bluffs to get

During the district water than the control of the c the eight years she has actually per-formed 24,600 hours of labor, and has set about 19,080,000 cms of type. When she began walking and working she was not enjoying good health, but now she is rosy cheeked and vigorous, and thinks no more of a jaunt of half a dozen miles than most ladies do of walking, around a square in the city. Crased by Hair Dye. A lamentable case of softening of the brain has come to the knowledge of a few society people, and it will result sooner or later in the confinement in a private asylum of a beautiful young woman who has been a favorite in fashiounble circles. She has for soveral years been addicted to the dangerous practice of bleaching har hair by means of certain powerful acids, and her mind has become so part-only affected therefrom that her physicians regard her case as incurable

For several months past, her actions, have been so peculiar as to excite the surprise of those of her nequaintances who were maware of her mental disease, but the secret has been carefully guarded by the family, and very few of her friends outside of the home circle know of her maledy. She was an exceptionally bright girl, and her misfortune is therefore all the large a share of the expense of the toys, had to ask permission to epeak in the town meeting, and could only be allowed to do so as a favor. But Miss Viming's suggestions were adopted, and $8,500 was appropriated to repair the cemetery.

A Woman Taxpayer. Miss Floreth Vining is one of the largest tappayers in Hull, Mass, and a public spirited citizen, who is always doing something for the town. Not long ago she attended the town meeting, as she wished to call attention to the discreditable condition of the market and the condition of the market was the condition of the condition and where to can attention to the dis-creditable condition of the public ceme-tery. With two or three exceptions all the men present were merely poll tax, payers; but this woman, who bore so large a chure of the expense of the town.
